CORIAN®

PRIVATE collection

Cirrus White
Tight, fluid, random veins in a mixture of whites.

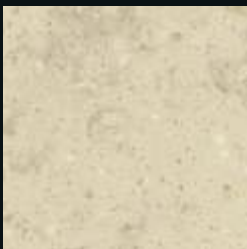

Tumbleweed
A warm beige base with brown veins that diffuse into a range of variegated beige tones and large translucent particles.

Rain Cloud
A neutral off-white base, with tender gray veining and traces of "barely there" large translucent and ultra fine dark particles that create a soft and entirely natural effect.

Sonora
A coffee latte color base, with espresso bean veins with a mingling of dark to light, medium to small particles for a complex, earthy, rustic effect.

Clam Shell
A bisque base, with soft nickel and antique brass veins and traces of "barely there" mix of translucent particles that create a soft and entirely natural effect.

Lava Rock
A deep warm gray base, with amber and golden veining with a mingling of dark to light, medium to small particles for a complex, earthy, rustic effect.
